

Dimitra K. Triantafyllou is a practicing lawyer in Greece, admitted to the Cyprus Bar, in the field of corporate, business, and commercial law, holds a master's degree in Southeast European Studies and since 2008 has been applying and developing out of court dispute resolution tools and processes in her practice. Dimitra is an international mediator, a mediation advocate, an Arbitrator at the Athens Chamber of Commerce and Industry and a deal facilitator and ADR neutral at DELTAtotheEPSILON. In 2013 she pioneered in promoting mediation in Greece with Toolkit company-NL as a mediation and negotiation trainer in collaboration with local Bars and Chambers. She is a member of International Mediation Institute's (IMI - The Hague) Appraisal Committee and has served as a member of the IMI's Task Force for Advocacy Mediation. She is the contributing editor and author of various publications and regularly publishes articles on the ADR field in legal magazines. In 2011 she was awarded a Weinstein JAMS International Fellowship and since 2018 is a Weinstein International Foundation (WIF) senior fellow.