

Evripides is a partner at D. Hadjinestoros & Co LLC. He studied law at the Queen Mary University London and graduated with distinction from the University College London for his LLM Degree. From 2015 he holds the title ADIT for passing the Advanced Diploma in International Taxation by CIOT. In 2016 Evripides co-authored the book “Sale of Goods and Consumer Protection” and has on numerous instances, been quoted in Cyprus judgments and cited in journals as well as English legal textbooks including Card & James, Business Law 2016 (Oxford University Press) and Stefan H.C. Lo, In Search of Corporate Accountability: Liabilities of Corporate Participants 2015 (Cambridge Scholars Publishing). Evripides is also a part time lecturer in Commercial Law and ADR at the European University of Cyprus. In 2017, Evripides has been leading the team of experts commissioned by the Consumer Protection Service of Cyprus to carry out a study on the current state of consumer protection law in Cyprus, suggest amendments to it and propose its codification. In 2018 Evripides founded the Cyprus Center for ADR and is a trainer of Mediators and Arbitrators in Cyprus. In 2021 he was selected by the Republic of Cyprus as an Independent Person of Standing under Council Directive (EU) 2017/1852 on Tax Dispute Resolution Mechanisms in the European Union.